4. Black Muslims. Displaying the same lack of information about the movement showed by their colleagues in other Arab countries, Saudi Arabian journalists in recent weeks have devoted a considerable amount of space to sympathetic stories dealing with the "Black Muslims" in the United States. News agency reports and features on the movement have appeared almost daily, especially since Heavyweight Cassius Clay's "conversion to (Black) Islam." (UNCLASSIFIED)

Comment: Individual education sessions with prominent Saudi writers have not thus far proved fully effective. USIS/Jidda is undertaking to step up its contacts with interested columnists and its distribution of printed materials related to the movement. (UNCLASSIFIED)
